2016 CENTENNIAL CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Hosted by McDaniel College (DIRECTIONS)
Gill Gymnasium
2 College Hill
Westminster, MD

Schedule Wrestling begins Saturday February 13 at 10 am

Follow the action Twitter: @GeneralsWrestle
@CentennialConf with hashtag #ccwrestle16
Video: http://mcdanielathletics.com/livevideo
NATIONALLY RANKED COMPETITORS

TEAMS

#13 Stevens Institute of Technology

#15 (t) New York University

#15 (t) Ursinus College

125

#10 Rob Murray, Stevens

133

#1 Nathan Pike, NYU

#8 Kevin Hoogheem, Ursinus

#9 Ryan O’Boyle, McDaniel

HM Zach Bylykbashi, Washington & Lee

HM Dial, Merchant Marine

141

HM Ryan Wilson, Stevens

HM Alvontae Drummond, McDaniel
#1 Derek Arnold, Ursinus

157

HM Raymond Jazikoff, NYU
HM Victor Del Monico, Stevens

165

#5 Colin Navickas, Stevens

174

HM Phil Woods, Stevens

184

#5 AJ Kowal, Stevens

#8 William Gockel-Figge, NYU

#10 Ron Tassoni, Washington & Lee

197

#9 Ricky Fisher, USMMA

HVY

#7 Paul Triandafilou, Gettysburg
THE GENERALS’ COMPETITORS

125 POUNDS || ETHAN HARTMAN
Freshman from River Edge, NJ

Season Record: 9-20
Centennial Conference Record: 1-7

Defeated: Muhlenberg
Lost to: NYU, McDaniel, McDaniel, Johns Hopkins, Ursinus, Gettysburg, Stevens
Did not wrestle: None

Ethan enters the conference tournament as a likely unseeded wrestler, but will look to score team points for the Generals.

133 POUNDS || ZACH BYLYKBASHI
Freshman from Southington, CT

Season Record: 30-6
Centennial Conference Record: 6-2

Defeated: Muhlenberg, McDaniel, Johns Hopkins, Ursinus, Gettysburg, Stevens
Lost to: NYU, McDaniel
Did not wrestle: None

Zach has had a phenomenal freshman season and has positioned himself as a true contender for the conference championship. He must win a rematch with McDaniel’s Ryan O’Boyle, as well as get past challenges from Merchant Marine’s ‘Kimo’ Taylor Dial and Ursinus’ Keven Hoogheem, neither of which wrestled against Zach during the dual meet season.
141 POUNDS || ALEX POLLERA
Sophomore from Warren, NJ

Season Record: 16-10
Centennial Conference Record: 4-2

Defeated: McDaniel, Johns Hopkins, Ursinus, Gettysburg
Lost to: Stevens, NYU
Did not wrestle: Muhlenberg, USMMA

Pollera should be seeded in the top four, but it is tough to say exactly where because after the Stevens wrestler, who will have the #1 seed, this weight class has a lot of parity. He is likely to be as high as the second or third seed.

Pollera has been wrestling well since returning from winter break and is 8-3 during the last 5 competitions.

174 POUNDS || BRANDON LEFORE
Sophomore from Morgan Hill, CA

Season Record: 17-5
Centennial Conference Record: 0-0

Defeated: None
Lost to: None
Did not wrestle: All

Brandon is a wild card for the Generals. A knee injury forced him to miss the entire conference dual schedule, but he looks ready to return to action.

Brandon’s season record stands at 17-5, including a 4th place finish at the Ohio Northern Invitational, so he will be a title contender as long as he is healthy enough to wrestle.
184 POUNDS || RON TASSONI
Senior from Media, PA

Season Record: 27-3
Centennial Conference Record: 6-2

Defeated: Muhlenberg, McDaniel, Johns Hopkins, Ursinus, Gettysburg, NYU
Lost to: Stevens; USMMA (#197)
Did not wrestle: None

Ron will be the second seed at the conference tournament, having only lost to #4 nationally-ranked AJ Kowal from Stevens. He also moved up to 197 pounds to wrestle Merchant Marine’s #7 ranked Ricky Fisher and lost 8-4. He dominated the rest of the conference competition and will look to get a rematch with Stevens in the Centennial Conference finals. Ron is the W&L career leader in wins and is looking to win his first Centennial Conference title.